AFFIDAVIT

I David F. Donahue, being duly sworn to hereby depose in state as follows:

1. I am employed as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and have been so employed for approximately thirteen years. I am currently assigned to Squad C-6, Boston Field Office, and have been so assigned since 1997. Part of my responsibilities on Squad C-6, which is responsible for the investigation of violent crimes, is the investigation of crimes committed on the high seas.

2. I am aware the Title 18, United States Code, Section 7, establishes jurisdiction for the enforcement of certain criminal laws of the United States within the "special maritime jurisdiction of the United States," by defining that term to include, in part, as follows:

The high seas, any other waters within the admiralty and maritime jurisdiction of the United States and out of the jurisdiction of any particular State, and any vessel belonging in whole or in part to the United States or any citizen thereof, or to any corporation created by or under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession thereof, when such vessel is within the admiralty and maritime jurisdiction of the United States and out of the jurisdiction of any particular State.

3. I am also aware that Title 18, United States Code, Section 113, makes it a federal crime and establishes penalties for certain assaults which occur within the special maritime jurisdiction of the United States. Section 113 specifically exempts from its reach assaults with intent to 1 commit any felony which constitutes a violation of Chapter

2 109A of Title 18 (Sexual Abuse), which contains its own 3 provisions for unlawful conduct occurring within the special 4 maritime jurisdiction of the United States.

5 4. Section 2241 of Chapter 109A of Title 18 of the 6 United States Code, provides in pertinent part: "Whoever, in 7 the special maritime jurisdiction of the United States, 8 knowingly causes another person to engage in a sexual act (1) 9 by using force against that other person, or attempts to do 10 so, shall [be guilty of a crime]." "Sexual act" is defined 11 in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2246(2) as including 12 genital-genital intercourse, genital anal intercourse, oral-13 genital intercourse, and digital (or other object) 14 penetration.

15 5. "Sexual contact" is defined in Title 18 United 16 States Code, section 2246(3) to mean: "the intentional 17 touching, either directly or through the clothing, of the 18 genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks of 19 any person with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, 20 degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any 21 person." Title 18 United States Code, Section 2244 makes it 22 a crime within the special maritime jurisdiction of the 23 United States to: "knowingly engage[] in or cause[] sexual 24 contact with or by another person, if so to do, would violate 25 (1) section 2241 . . . had the sexual contact been a sexual 26 act."

27 6. I submit this Affidavit in support of a 28 criminal complaint charging SAMUEL REYES ("REYES") with

1 knowingly engaging, within the special maritime jurisdiction
2 of the United States, in sexual contact with another person 3 in circumstances that would have violated Title 18, United 4 States Code, Section 2241, if the sexual contact had been a 5 sexual act, as those terms are defined in Title 18, United 6 States Code, Sections 2246(2) and (3).

7 7. I submit this Affidavit based upon my own 8 investigation as well as upon information obtained from 9 others who investigated the matter or who had personal 10 knowledge of the facts therein. Since this Affidavit is 11 being submitted for the limited purpose of securing a 12 criminal complaint, your affiant has not included each and 13 every fact known to him concerning this investigation.

14 FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES

15 8. The cruise ship "Seabreeze" is a flag ship of 16 Panama, owned and operated by Premier Cruise Lines, a 17 corporation under the laws of Bermuda. It currently offers 18 cruises out of Boston, Massachusetts, leaving on Friday 19 afternoon and returning on Sunday morning. The cruises 20 originate in Boston, and involve no port of destination.
21 Rather, the "Seabreeze" cruises out into the Atlantic Ocean, 22 as many as 50 miles from the coast of the United States,
23 before returning to Boston.

24 9. On Sunday, July 23, 2000, at approximately 2:30
25 a.m., the "Seabreeze" was located in the Atlantic Ocean, 26 approximately 24 miles from the coast of the United States, a 27 location I know to be within the special maritime 28 jurisdiction of the United States, as that term is defined in

1 18 U.S.C. §7(1). At that time, REYES was employed as a 2 cleaner aboard the "Seabreeze." Aboard the "Seabreeze" at 3 that time was a female passenger that will be referred to 4 hereafter as JANE DOE.

5 10. I have spoken to JANE DOE since the night of 6 July 23, 2000, and she informed me of the following:

- 7 a. She was en route alone to the Seabreeze
8 Disco at approximately 2:00-2:30. a.m., 9 when she became lost on board the ship.
10 She asked two crew members directions to 11 the Disco and one of the crew members,
12 later identified as SAMUEL REYES, advised 13 her to follow him.
- 14 b. REYES brought her to a dead end 15 passageway on board the ship and grabbed 16 her arms. REYES pushed her up against 17 the wall and began to pull her shirt and 18 bra up and away from her chest. While he 19 kept her forced against the wall, REYES 20 began kissing her neck and breasts and 21 attempted to unbuckle her pants.
- 22 c. REYES then pulled out a ring of keys from 23 his pocket, and while holding on to her,
24 tried unsuccessfully to open a door to a 25 nearby locked cabin.
- 26 d. Unknown individuals were then heard 27 conversing down the hallway of the ship.
28 The conversations startled REYES, and

1 she was able to break away from him at 2 this time.

3 e. The sexual contact forced upon her was 4 against her will. During the attack she 5 repeatedly demanded that REYES let her 6 go.

7 f. She immediately reported the attack to a
8 crew member of the "Seabreeze."

9 g. REYES was subsequently identified as the 10 perpetrator of the attack when she 11 recognized him later that evening in the 12 Disco and pointed him out to ship 13 officials.

14 11. Crew members of the "Seabreeze" advised your 15 affiant that upon docking at Boston, Massachusetts on July 16 23, 2000, REYES, who had been kept under house arrest in a 17 cabin during the remainder of the cruise, was fired by Premier 18 Cruise Lines.

19 12. For the reasons set forth above, I believe 20 probable cause exists to conclude that on July 23, 2000, 21 SAMUEL REYES did, within the special maritime jurisdiction of 22 the United States, knowingly engage in sexual contact with 23 another person in circumstances that would have violated 24 Title 18, United States Code, Section 2241, if the sexual

1 contact had been a sexual act, as those terms are defined in 2 Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2246(2) and (3), in 3 violation of 18 U.S.C. §2244(a)(1).
